If such a resolution is passed the United States will take additional steps to protect its interests against Germany.

The cabinet in urging the move of the president is described as being more thoroughly united than it has been on any other question. At first there was a suggestion that the result might be to allow Germany to use submarines against the American coast, but the Navy feels that it is able to take care of that. Meanwhile the Navy is rushing preparations and the Army is preparing plans. Industrial mobilization is planned and hundreds of great corporations have offered

The meeting was then adjourned.

PERMIT FOR BRIDGE

Michael Sholtz this morning received from the United States War department at Washington, D. C., a permit for the construction of the proposed bridge over the St. Johns river at the Crows Bluff ferry, which had been delayed through a change made in the location of the bridge to remove it further from a bend in the river. Mr. Sholtz states that the steel for the bridge has already been ordered and that the work of construction would commence as soon as possible.

Mrs. N. Peters, Mrs. M. Tepe and C. Vogte, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are guests at Schmidt's hotel for the next fortnight. The trio spent the greater part of the season on the west coast, going to Jacksonville for a week's visit before coming here. "We are regretting that we did not come to Daytona sooner," said Mr. Vogte to a News representative yesterday. "For had we seen 'the prettiest resort in the world' first, we should have spent a much longer time here."

Needless to say, this story was told by a Kentuckian. A visitor to heaven was being shown around by Saint Peter. After he had made a circuit and admired the streets of gold, and the singing birds, and the beautiful flowers, and was about to go out the gate again, he noticed a group of men over in a corner tied together, looking very disconsolate. "Why, who are those men over there?" he asked St. Peter in surprise. Oh," said Saint Peter, "those? Those are Kentuckians." "But what are they chained up for?" asked the visitor. "We have to keep them tied up," said Saint Peter, frowning. "If we didn't, they'd all go right back."

Odd Advice to Parents.

Surely it is a good plan, now and again, to pose to children, while they are still too young to find us out! They are bored by impassive parents; they love to see us moved and to be surprised by us; it gives them pleasure to get a flash of dramatic feeling out of us, like a spark out of a heavy Leyden jar. Let us be their actors and play to their tiny gallery, setting before them the image of things as they are. "Oh, but we ought always to be perfectly natural!" you say. Indeed, we ought not. Perfect naturalness is for brute beasts which have no understanding We ought to take the trouble to be performers for the children's benefit, and the perfectly natural parents are mostly they who believe that their children are made for them, not they for their children.

Slavery in United States.

Before the War of Ladependence slavery existed in every one of the "old thirteen" states. There were fewer slaves in the northern colonies than in the southern, but the institution existed from Massachusetts to Georgia. It was the invention of the cotton gin by a New England schoolteacher, living at the time in Georgia, that caused slavery to shift Southward.

NORMA TALMAGE

Norma Talmadge, who was in Daytona recently, will appear in "Panthea," at the Crystal theatre tomor row afternoon and night. This is considered one of the best pictures in which the little star ever appeared, and it is expected that this popular picture theatre will be crowded at each presentation.

+++++++++++++ ANITA STEWART PROVES HERSELF ALL-ROUND GIRL

When dainty Anita Stewart read her manuscript on the Robert W. Chambers story, "The Girl Philippa," Ring" has been staged more than 500 which S. Rankin Drew directed for times with tremendous success. It is the Vitagraph company, she found that it would be necessary for her to theatre the afternoon and evening of do a number of things, not to mention

However, with her athletic have always been manifest, and when Director Drew suggested that she accustom herself to the wheel before the picture was taken she was able to laugh at him and bid the camera man stand ready. You see he didn't know that she had been able to ride a wheel since she was a school giri, and that she had won many races with her friends.

Perfectly at home in an elaborate drawing room, he found it hard to believe that she was capable of row ing the boat as the story demanded. This eight-part special Blue Ribbon Feature is the headliner at the New Daytona theatre on Monday. Tuesday and Wednesday of next

Uncle Sam Chary About Telling People Where His Fighting Vessels Are.

There Are 359 Vessels of All Kinds Fit for Service and 53 Vessels of Different Classes Under Construction-Recruiting for Navy.

By EDWARD B. CLARK,

(Washington Correspondent of Western Newspaper Union.) Washington.—Uncle Sam makes no secret of the number and the kind of ships which he has for the protection of his possessions. Just now, however, Uncle Sam is chary about telling people where his ships are. The word concerning their whereabouts might be heard by someone "who would know what to do with the information." Within two years, and possibly under the spur of need, the United States government will have a good many more men of war of various degrees of offensive and defensive strength than it has today. Next year's naval appropriation bill probably will make provision for a total expenditure of $532,-

Today there are 359 vessels of all kinds fit for fighting or other service in behalf of the colors which they carry. In addition to these there are 53 vessels of different classes under present construction. To these must be added 63 ships authorized and for one 14 Cadillac, one Studebaker tour-, which appropriations have been made. Then again must be added the shops for which congress made provision in the last hours of the present session.

There are 14 battleships of the first class now in commission, and five are under construction, while the building FOR RENT: Two small cottages of four more already has been authorized. Nowadays they call these firstly. Apply to J. Coyte, 538 N. Beach class battleships, "battleships, single caliber." The second-class battleships are called "battleships, mixed caliber." Is Guarded Secret.

In a general way the public knows that so many of our battleships are in the Atlantic and that so many of them are in the Pacific. No one today, however, is allowed to say definitely, even if he knows, just where the Atlantic fleet is sailing or harboring. It can be said, because the information is public matter, that a good many of our battleships of the second class are in harbors along the Atlantic coast, where they are being made ready for possible hard service.

Today there are no battle cruisers of the kind possessed by both the British and the German navy, carried on our list of active-service ships. Four battle cruisers, however, already have been authorized, and the money has been appropriated for their construction. The time when they will be ready for cruising has not been disclosed. But despite the efforts of the department and its officers, the enlisted force is now only 53,500-or combining 94 parts of copper with 6 24,500 short of even our peace-time parts of antimony and midding a little complement. Recruiting officers are handicapped by being strangers in the district where the work takes them-and cor people are incredulous to the offers of strangers."

It is the intention of the Navy league, acting with the sanction of the mayy department, to ask its members to aid the work of recruiting for the plying information concerning just what the navy does for young men and the advantages it offers them in peace times. Among the outgoing guests were Mrs. Julia Milliken and her two inter esting daughters, Misses Helen and Loiuse Milliken, whose summer home is in Cleveland, Ohio. It was with genuine regret that these people left the Toronita hotel, as they had an ideal time from the beginning, but they had made previous reservations in North Carolina to spend a few days with Charles Milliken, who is attend ing school there.

The picnic which was held Satur day at the sugar mill, was attended by nearly 60 people from Wilbur-bythe Sea, and a very pleasant day was Attorney Rayborn, a son of the late Judge Rayborn, of Pennsylvania, demonstrated that he was proficient with the rod and reel, as well as at the bar, for he brought to the Toronita hotel one of the prettlest strings of fish caught in the river this season. Mr. Rayborn had them photographed. and will show his northern friends what an ideal spot this is.

Mrs. Wilbur F. Cobb, of Cardinal avenue, was hostess to a number of her friends on Tuesday afternoon, The time was pleasantly spent play ing cards, after which dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. E. W. Ball, who owns a pretty winter residence at Wilbur-by-the-Sea, has recently purchased two more desirable house lots.

The Wilbur 'bus is now in charge of John Baylor, who is not only a clever driver, but he takes great pride in treating all who ride in a courteous manner

A splendid catch was made by the gentlemen, the evidence of which is learly portrayed in a picture which s now on display at the desk in the lobby of the Despland. The largest fish caught was a 70-pound amberjack. which was the biggest brought ashore OURNEY this season. Forty groupers also AT PRINCE GEORGE graced the exhibit, 12 red snappers weighing from 10 to 14 pounds each were in the collection. The trip took about one full day of fishing although he party spent one night on board. When we returned," said Mr. Blackidge, "we created quite a sensation with our catch, and the services of an officer were necessary to keep the rowds back. It took about threequarters of an hour to land the amberjack who was a gamy fellow to land, which required strategy, giving us plenty of play for our gains." The collection was given Captain Hatch who received just $35 for the fish. Mr. Blacklidge enjoys fishing more than any other sport, but has not done any this season, excepting dur-

The resort is famous for the beauty and excellence of its horseback trails and for boating and fishing and the influence of the gasoline king has not been allowed to disturb the halcyon of the natural scenery.

Upon completion of the Hotel Mc-Allister, Miami, Mr. Hill will have the management of the hotel. The McAllister, owned by Mrs. E. C. Mc-Allister, and situated on Twelfth street, the most important thoroughfare of the Magic City overlooks beautiful Biscayne bay. Of reinforced concrete and in Spanish arch) ectural design, the hotel when completed will be one of the most beautiful struc tures in Miami. Throughout the first floor the floors will be marble, and the picturesque Spanish influence will be notable in the interior decorations. The hotel, which will have accommodations for 250 guests, is perhaps the largest in the south owned by a

A member of the National Hotel Men's Mutual association, Mr Hill is well known throughout Florida, having spent nine winters in various parts of the state including Winter Park and Rockledge. The visitor, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Glenn at the Seaside Inn since Sunday. will leave today for Philadelphia to confer with the architeet in charge of the Hotel Mc-Allister.

Killed Her Engine.

A three-year-old Columbus girl, who had been motoring frequently last summer with her father and mother, seems to have absorbed some of the talk she overheard. She was dragging a little chair cross the floor at home, when it struck an obstruction, and her progress across the room was stopped. "Whoa," she exclaimed, "I've killed my engine." -Indianapolis News.
